A FEW CONSIDERATIONS OF A WAR RESISTER AND A WORLD FEDERALIST

In James Joyce's Ulysses somebody says (translated from a translation) : "I consider history to be a nightmare out of which I try to awake."

Most certainly, persons inspired against war, including world federalists, think in a similar way. Doing so, however, they ought not to forget that -like also the philosopher Karl Popper put forward- attempts to create paradise on earth tend to bring about a hell.

Non-violent alternatives

Indeed, one should not expect heaven on earth to be possible. In that far one could even criticise Gandhi where he stated (translated from a translation,) : "I am convinced that if my compatriots conserve the spirit of non-violence to the extreme they will inaugurate a new era in the world. (See p. 77 in Edmond Privat's book "Aux Indes avec Gandhi.")

Certainly, the realisations of the Gandhian movement may be called wonderful. Nonetheless, the principle of non-violent resistance could animate the whole of the Indian population only at the time of the struggle for decolonisation. After that it hardly has got any impact on the Indian and worldwide society.

Nuclear power

The country in which the struggle for independence took place in a sphere of non-violence as taught by mahatma Gandhi even degenerated into a nuclear power. India and its previous region Pakistan produced weapons of mass destruction. As to the latter country, we saw on television with how much vulgar, fanatic enthusiasm the "first Islamic atomic bomb" was welcomed...

Nevertheless

Nevertheless, of course, what Gandhi stood for, i.e. satyagraha (force of truth) rooted in ahimsa (unconditional non-violence, compassion, love) ought to be considered to belong to the highest values a human being can be dedicated to. However, we should not forget which severe standards non-violent combatants were supposed to stick to : fearlessness or unshakable courage when faced with death, with injuries, with imprisonment, with loss of beloved ones; complete "chastity" = sexual abstinence; no tobacco, alcohol or drugs; a sober way of life; sober though healthy (lacto-vegetarian) eating.

Can everybody stick to this?

Not everybody, for sure, can stick to such standards. This being so, we believe that in the first place persons should be taken as they are. They ought not to reach perfect wisdom before being allowed to do something good on the basis of universal principles or values.

Conscientious objectors

On that ground we also admit that conscientious objectors should not first attain spiritual or moral perfection before taking the decision to refuse conscription. Nevertheless, they ought to be inspired by the deep conviction that human beings must not be compelled to slaughter fellow-men or to cause them all possible physical or psychic damage. Having this conviction they can remind that their way of thinking is shared by colleagues in many countries of the world : for example was this the case in Nazi-Germany, although in that country they were subject to the most brutal repression.

What about world citizens?

World citizens can as well belong to the armed forces as proceed to conscientious objection. As to us, we opted for the latter. Does this imply that we, like for example the Union Pacifiste de France (a section of the War Resisters' International), just stand for unconditional disarmament of our countries? If governments would proceed to such disarmament, this would mean that they are moved by an ethical conviction comparable to the one inspiring conscientious objectors : this you cannot expect from them. Moreover, in the light of the unpredictable character of developments on the international military-political chessboard, e.g. unconditional nuclear disarmament would not necessarily bring about less uncertainty in the balance of power. Hence, the risk of a worldwide war could possibly even be enhanced. And when such war breaks out, the existing knowledge, in the shortest time, can lead to a renewed production of nuclear or other weapons of mass destruction.

World Federalism

This again brings us to a world federalist approach. The notion of "world ethos" (wereldethos) is often heard those last decades. There is a growing understanding that the big survival problems of our era are put on a mundial level. Nevertheless, actual world federalism makes a pale, old fashioned impression. If you talk about it, you tend to make yourself ridiculous. Yes, maybe we are utopians, but in our time mankind will not survive unless it realises certain utopias. For sure, progressive disarmament and replacement of the armed forces by a mundial police will never become possible without the creation of appropriate political institutions which to some extent would take the form of a world federation.

But what to do?

But how could this as utopian as necessary objective be realised? Everybody can become conscious of the fact that his everyday life is linked to world problems. Each woman or man can understand that we are all world citizens having mundial interests. This being so, we all should demand the creation of a second, directly elected UNO-chamber. This, in the course of time, could proclaim itself a world constituent assembly.

Whatever may be, federalism as a war banning factor proved that it worked. On the contrary, the old idea that in order to preserve peace, you have to prepare war, never has sustained the touch of reality in the end. (JV)

November 20, 2014 : Covert Harassment Conference

In Brussels, on the 20th of November 2014 a Covert Harassment Conference was organised, initiated by the European Coalition Against Covert Harassment (EUCACH) and Stop Electronic Weapons / Stop Gang Stalking (STOPEG).

This remarkable event gathered more than a hundred persons from various countries. The horrendous question of crimes against humanity perpetrated secretly by means of radiation weapons and by all sorts of criminal stalking (like burglaries, damaging homes and cars, stealing files, financial manipulations in order to ruin the victims, false rumours) was explained by serious researchers like among others Peter Mooring, Mojmir Babacek and Dr. Rauni-Leena Luukanen-Kilde.

It is no use, however to write here about this in English, as all information in that language is available on websites like :

“Citoyens du Monde” (“World Citizens”)

Francophone colleagues in Brussels created an association they called « Citoyens du Monde », which is also functioning as a centre of registry.

Hopefully, a permanent secretariat will be installed soon in 1000 Brussels, 36, rue du Chevreuil. Meanwhile one can address :

- Luc Delcroix, 84, boulevard Emile Max, 1030 Brussels
- Florian Ruymen : edirtapa@gmail.com
- Pierre Delmotte : enercomscs@yahoo.fr
- Anthony Smets : anthony@asmets.be
- René-Paul Malevé : renepaulmaleve@hotmail.com

In 1966

In 1966 thirteen personalities of world renown launched an appeal inviting their fellow men to register as world citizens. Out of the text we quote :

“In the absence of supranational law, nations are obliged to resort to force to defend their interest. The consequence : war, voluntary or accidental; and war, since the splitting of the atom and the development of bacteriological weapons becomes the absurd ‘final solution’, the genocide of the human race.

Without world institutions able to assure the fundamental needs common to all, man is helpless. Two thirds of humanity suffer from hunger while immense riches are wasted.

Only the people of the world, everyone of us, can save the situation.

The first simple but effective step we ask you to take is to REGISTER AS A WORLD CITIZEN, as we have done.

The text was signed by :

- Lord Boyd Orr (Great Britain), first director of the FAO = Food and Agriculture Organization (1945-1948), Nobel Prize for Peace 1949.
- Josué de Castro (Brazil), ex-president of the Council of FAO.
- Danilo Dolci (Italië), pioneer in non-violent resistance.
- Shinzo Hamai (Japan), Mayor of Hiroshima.
- Prof. J.L. Hromadka (Czecho-Slovakia), president of the „Christian Peace Conference”.
- Prof. Alfred Kastler (France), Nobel Prize for Physics 1966.
- Mrs. Rajan Nehru (India).
- Prof. Linus Pauling (United States), Nobel Prize for chemistry 1954 + Nobel Prize for Peace 1962. (Note of us : few people will remember that the inventor of e.g. ascorbic acid -vitamin C- had himself registered by us as a world citizen).
- Abbé Pierre (France), Founder of the “Communautés d’Emmaüs”
- Prof. Jean Rostand (France), biologist, writer, member of the Institut de France.
- Lord Bertrand Russell (Great Britain), philosopher, mathematician, Nobel Prize Literature 1949.
- Prof. Ivan Supek (Yugoslavia), professor of philosophy and science, member of the Academy of Science and Arts, President of the Yugoslav Pugwash Movement.
- Prof. Hans Thirring (Austria), professor of physics at the University of Vienna, member of the Austrian Academy of Science.

Nowadays, like at the time, too few persons have themselves registered. In order to improve that situation, we ask our readers to invite people around them to declare themselves world citizens who are aware of the essential importance of the mundial dimension.

Consultative Assembly linked to the Peoples’ Congress

The Peoples’ Congress, the first delegates of which were elected in 1969, about 2000 had the feeling that it could no longer tackle things alone. Therefore it decided to be assisted by a Consultative Assembly. This is composed as well of persons as of associations. Of the latter 141 have joined the Assembly hitherto.

More information can be found on our website www.recim.info . We can also send some documentation by post.

Thirty-fifth session of the Institute of Mundialist Studies

The Institute of Mundialist Studies = Institut d'Etudes Mondialistes, created in 1977 by the Peoples' Congress, will hold its 35th session from the 26th to the 29th August 2015, in Eben-Emael (Belgium), au Moulin du Bouckey.

Mundial* Solidarity Against Hunger (M.S.H.)

Mundial Solidarity Against Hunger (M.S.H.) = Solidarité Mondiale contre la Faim (S.M.F.) was founded in 1982 by the Peoples' Congress. It is a transnational organisation working in accordance with the principle of mutualism. It temporarily procures financial aid to agricultural and artisanal cooperatives, in order to help them becoming independent. Since it was created, S.M.F. supported ninety projects in several countries of the world, especially in Africa to the South of the Sahara.

Mundialist* Press Agency

The Mundialist Press Agency = Agence mondiale de Presse was created in 1980 by the Peoples' Congress. During many years it issued a communiqué every month about developments in the world and it counted among its members periodic journalists from everywhere on the earth who feel sympathetic about mundialism.

Towards the end of the nineties, due particularly to the passing of persons responsible for it, it has become silent. Now it is coming to new live. Search on www.recim.org or contact our official international secretariat : Registre des Citoyens du Monde, 66, boulevard Vincent Auriol, F-75013 Paris.

« Idole Patrie » = ± « Idol Native Country »

« Idole Patrie » is a book written by world citizen Julien Teppe, edited in 1967 by Les Editions du Centre. Maybe the author's position can be called excessively anti-nationalistic. Like Jean Rostand (world citizen and biologist of international renown) he also believes that biology could explain and condition the whole human being, which we consider to be quite a dangerous error. However, we discern in him a man viscerally opposed to war and convinced that mankind needs world institutions to ban it in its worst forms. The book, written in a splendid language, has great merits which we cannot talk about it in a few sentences.

Nobel Prize for Peace for... a champion of the arms race?

On Voltaire International we read an article of Manlio Dinucci. He reminds that on October of 2009 President Barack Obama received the Nobel Prize for Peace. He was supposed to deserve it because of his struggle for a world free from nuclear weapons. The New York Times, however, reported that the Obama Administration is being investing tens of billions of dollars in modernizing and reconstructing the arsenal of and storage places for American nuclear weapons...

The horror among us

As an example of electronic harassment/ terrorism as well as of organised stalking we can mention the situation in which Ms. MV., a lady living in Brussels, finds herself in since 2008.

In that year she had to be operated in a hospital in Brussels. On that occasion unknown criminals brought several implants into her organism which she defines as nanotechnologies.

Particularly tormenting her is a ring of implants in her neck which constantly gives her a feeling of being strangled. The other implants as well torture her every day and night : she feels bombarded by live ruining radiations.

Moreover, her apartment and her car are very regularly broken into. However, the criminals do not behave like normal thieves. As a rule, they only steal information about crimes against humanity perpetrated by radiation weapons. They also damage all sorts of objects and apparatuses, in order to terrorize and impoverish their victim.

These wrongdoers clearly show that that they break in when they want to. Their believe that penal law does not apply to them sees itself in a way corroborated by the fact that the police and the office of the Public Prosecutor don't really take action.

Please ask us for M's coordinates and contact her, examining what you can do in order to bring some release in this intolerable situation.

Finances

Since about the year 2000 very few persons had themselves registered as world citizens at the secretariat in Hove. Meanwhile, the majority of the others have passed away or have moved without communicating their new address.

This decrease of the public explains that our financial situation has become extremely precarious and that after sending this newsletter we will keep quite a negative amount only. Therefore we should feel utterly grateful to our readers who would transfer a contribution to the account of the REGISTER VAN WERELDURGERS in Hove, number :

Our eternal gratefulness accompanies our donors.

Jean Verstraeten

(who is personally responsible for the contents of this newsletter.)

We won't have peace unless we create a world government. Nothing else will work, for the simple reason that as long as there is no world legality and a world police force, war will be the only possible solution in the case of a serious conflict.

(Thomas Mann, translated by us)
